EMPORDA

The Doral in Miami, Deepdale in New York, Horal CC in Japan, Seignosse in southern France... These are but a few of the approximately 250 golf courses designed by Robert von Hagge, the architect responsible for Empordà Golf.

Since then, Robert von Hagge has created some of the world's most renowned courses. Empordà Golf marks his entry into the Spanish market.

At Empordà Golf Club, Robert von Hagge has managed to improve an already stellar setting by creating a technically perfect course that allows for a wide variety of swings and techniques.

Emporda Golf Club is actually a combination of four, nine hole courses, which have been combined to form two distinct 18 holes.

The first 18 holes are of a links type with lakes, dunes and extensive bunkers.

The second 18 are immersed in Mediterranean pines, typical of the area and the third nine are again protected by them, ideal protection for those days when the Tramontana decides to blow.

Considered one of the best courses in Catalonia, Emporda Golf is also one of the PGA European Tour Qualifying Schools. Emporda Golf has excellent training facilities and has on site a four star hotel giving it its status as Emporda Golf Resort.

Details: 36 holes.

LINKS COURSE: Length 6687yds Par 71.

FOREST COURSE: Length 6530yds Par 73.

Location: The Emporda Golf course is Located in Gualta, in the Heart of the Emporda, just 30 minutes from Barcelona (Girona) airport.

PGA CATALUNYA- SPANISH OPEN 2009

PGA de Catalunya Golf Course

The PGA de Catalunya golf course on Catalonia's Costa Brava has been voted one of the ten best golf courses in Europe by Golf World magazine and one of its writers, Steve Carr, described it as the 'jewel in the crown'.

It truly is a stunning course with the Pyrenees as a backdrop, which only adds to the magic. PGA Catalunya golf course was designed by Neil Coles and Angel Gallardo and after only opening at the end of 1998, has already hosted the Sarazen World Open in 1999 and the Spanish Open in 2000, the only course to host two European Tour events within 10 months of opening.

In November 2008 the finals of the European Tour Qualifying School were held on both the Stadium and Tour Courses and nine years later history will be repeated when the PGA Catalunya once again held the Spanish Open (Open de España) in April 2009.

PGA CATALUNYA STADIUM COURSE (OLD COURSE)

The PGA Catalunya Stadium course is set on undulating land with evergreens, oak trees and heather lining its perfect fairways. It is a technical course which suits professionals and amateurs of a good standard and boasts some truly spectacular holes. PGA Catalunya Stadium Course has hosted the Spanish Open in the year 2000 and will again host it in 2009. This spectacular course is not to be missed.

Details: 18 holes. Length 6809yds. Par 72.

Yellow Tee Course Record 64 Peter Baker (England)

PGA CATALUNYA TOUR COURSE (NEW COURSE)

October 2005 saw the opening of the new Tour Course at the PGA de Catalunya. The course has been planned and laid in the same meticulous way as the championship course but offers wider fairways and larger greens. The new course has given the PGA de Catalunya new impetus, offering golfers of all levels the chance to play on one of the best and most beautiful courses in Europe.

Details: 18 holes. Length 6065yds. Par 72. Yellow Tee

Spring 2006 also saw the opening of the new four star hotel which has complemented what is already on offer here and the whole complex now forms the PGA Catalunya Resort. It must be said that the PGA Catalunya is a spectacular setting to hold any golf event and combined with the hotel it is the ideal venue for any Corporate celebration.

The PGA Catalunya has now opened its newly refurbished and extended clubhouse and offers all the services you would expect from such a prestigious course.

The courses are located near the small town of Caldes de Malavella in the Costa Brava area of Catalonia and only a few minutes from Girona Airport.

Facilities: Bar and terrace with spectacular views, Restaurant, Golf school, Caddy Master, Driving range and practice areas, Catering for large groups, Buggy hire, PGA Catalunya Golf shop.

Location: Caldes de Malavella(Girona, Costa Brava). Girona 15kms, Barcelona 45mins, Girona airport 10mins, Rail Station, Caldes de Malavella 5mins.
